Barker Mansion, built by John Barker, one of the founders of the rail car industry, was entered into the Historic Register in October 1975. This house, while actually lived in for only a very short time, has brought many years of enjoyment to the Barker family and to the residents and visitors of the City of Michigan City. From educational guided tours and lemonade in the gardens to special seasonal functions, the Barker Mansion and Civic Center is a jewel in the crown of Michigan City. 219/873-1520
